AMBAG 500 UNIVERSITY-WIDE RETREAT FINAL DETAILS

In view of our forthcoming AMBAG 500 University-wide Retreat that will be held this week, April 27-29, 2022, the Office of the Vice-Rector for Religious Affairs would like to give the following important details:

1. Online Attendance

- Classes and work are officially suspended to enable the whole Thomasian community to devote themselves full-time to the retreat, whether they are participating online or onsite.
- Students may register using their UST Google Workspace log-in credentials using the Google Stream link:

- Alumni, former employees, other members of the Thomasian community, and friends of UST may join through the livestream in the UST Facebook Page (@UST1611official).
- Online Attendance Monitoring:
  - a. Attendance for all the Support Staff will be monitored through the USSAP Portal. For all the Academic Staff, it will be done by academic unit using Google Forms to be fielded by the respective academic units who may opt to use this template: \(https://bit.ly/3lqSSaq\).
  - b. After the retreat, OVRRA will be requesting from the Faculty Secretary of each academic unit a summary report in percentage of the AM and PM attendance for each of the three days.
  - c. Attendance of the students is required but will not be checked.
- E-Liturgy Guide: Students and those who were not able to claim their kits may download the Liturgy Guide, which is publicly available, using this link \(https://bit.ly/Ambag500Liturgy\) or through the AMBAG 500 Website. A checklist of things to prepare for all liturgical celebrations is found at the beginning of each day.

2. Onsite Attendance

- Participants attending onsite are requested to observe proper health protocols, as per UST Health Service, including the wearing of face masks, throughout the activity (see attached).
- Proper physical distancing will be observed in the UST Chapel with a maximum of three (3) participants per pew on a free seating basis.
- Please come in smart casual attire.
- Lunch, morning and afternoon snacks will be served for onsite participants with a managed buffet set-up. As you arrive, kindly proceed to the registration to sign and get your meal stubs.
