A.Y. 2021-2022

TO : THE THOMASIAN COMMUNITY
FROM : OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL
RE : CALL FOR PPCRV VOLUNTEERS
DATE : 3 MAY 2022

The University of Santo Tomas, in partnership with the Parish Pastoral Council for Responsible Voting (PPCRV), houses the COMELEC's Media Server and the PPCRV's Command Center at the UST Quadricentennial Pavilion (QPav).

PPCRV is a non-partisan citizen's arm with a nationwide scope of activities and projects of ensuring clean, honest, accurate, meaningful, and peaceful (CHAMP) elections. Beginning 9 May 2022 (Monday) up to 22 May 2022 (Sunday), fully vaccinated volunteer encoders, following their respective schedules, will be heading their way to the QPav as PPCRV volunteers.

As a partner institution of PPCRV and COMELEC, The University invites the Thomasian community to take part in this noble undertaking, by sharing their precious time and service as volunteer encoder of election returns, for at most three (3) hours in a day.

Interested volunteers are advised to:

- Log in to <https://www.ivolunteer.com.ph/> and wait for the confirmation of your schedule;
- On the day of your visit to the UST QPav, present your official ID card, Vaccination Card and Health Declaration via a StaySafe.PH applications (scan the QR Code at the right), and you will be given an ID card as PPCRV Volunteer; and
- While inside the Command Center, observe basic health protocols such as wearing of face mask, physical distancing, and frequent washing/sanitizing of hands.

May this act of volunteerism further ensure the sanctity of the collective votes of our fellow Filipino citizens.

Thank you.
