

The 16th Biennial Conference of the International Association for Forensic and Legal Linguistics (IAFL 16)

Buenaventura G. Paredes, OP (BGPOP) Building
University of Santo Tomas, Manila, the Philippines
July 4-6, 2023

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

DAY 1 (July 4, Tuesday)
Invocation and National Anthem	08:45 - 09:00	UST Chorus of Arts and Letters
Welcome Remarks	09:00 - 09:05	Prof. Cheryl R. Peralta UST Vice-Rector for Academic Affairs
Opening Remarks	09:05 - 09:10	Prof. Marilu R. Madrunio Conference Chair
Keynote Speech	09:20 - 10:00	Chief Justice Alexander G. Gesmundo Supreme Court of the Philippines
Morning Break
Plenary Lecture 1 The Role of Explanation in Forensic Linguistic Expert Evidence	10:30 - 11:30	Prof. Tim Grant Aston Institute for Forensic Linguistics, Aston University, United Kingdom
Lunch Break
Plenary Lecture 2 Ethics and Professional Conduct Oversight in Forensic Linguistic Expert Evidence	12:30 - 01:30	Dr. Isabel Picornell QED Limited, United Kingdom President, International Association for Forensic & Legal Linguistics
Featured Presentation Cambridge University Press Elements Series on Forensic Linguistics	01:30 - 01:45	Prof. Tim Grant Editor, Cambridge Elements Series on Forensic Linguistics
Themed Panel Presentation (1) Transdisciplinary Approach to Forensic Linguistics	01:45 - 03:30	Moderator Prof. Isabel Pefianco Martin Ateneo de Manila University, the Philippines Panelists Prof. Marilu R. Madrunio University of Santo Tomas, the Philippines Atty. Senando Angelo Santiago University of the Philippines, the Philippines Dr. Laura Smith-Khan University of Technology Sydney, Australia
Afternoon Break
Parallel Paper Presentations (1)	03:45 - 04:50
Parallel Paper Presentations (2)	04:55 - 06:00

Emcee

DAY 2 (July 5, Wednesday)

Plenary Lecture 3 Enriching Understandings of Language Expertise through Work in Forensic Linguistics	08:30 - 09:30	Prof. Natalie Schilling Georgetown University, United States of America
Morning Break
Parallel Paper Presentations (3)	09:45 - 10:50
Parallel Paper Presentations (4)	10:55 - 12:00
Lunch Break
Business Meeting	01:00 - 02:30
Plenary Lecture 4 Multilingual Law – is it worth it? Some Answers (and Questions) from Asia	02:30 - 03:30	Prof. Richard Powell Nihon University, Japan Japan Association of Law and Language
Afternoon Break
Themed Panel Presentation (2) Ethics and Ethical Conduct in Forensic Linguistics	03:45 - 05:00	Moderator Prof. Tim Grant Aston Institute for Forensic Linguistics Aston University, United Kingdom Panelists Dr. Kate Haworth Aston Institute for Forensic Linguistics Aston University, United Kingdom Dr. Sarah Atkins Aston Institute for Forensic Linguistics Aston University, United Kingdom
Cultural Night	07:00 - 10:00

DR. ALEJANDRO S. BERNARDO
Emcee

DAY 3 (July 6, Thursday)

Plenary Lecture 5 Tightening the Reigns on Expert Evidence; Judicial Gatekeeping in the Canadian Context	09:00 - 10:00	Dr. Jennifer Glougie BC Labour Relations Board and BC Employment Standards Tribunal, Canada
Morning Break
Parallel Paper Presentations (5)	10:15 - 11:20
Lunch
Plenary Lecture 6 Some Reflection Thoughts from Case Studies of Forensic Linguistics in Indonesia	01:00 - 02:00	Dr. Susanto Saman Universitas Bandar Lampung, Indonesia
Closing Remarks	02:00 - 02:05	Dr. Isabel Picornell QED Limited, United Kingdom President, International Association for Forensic & Legal Linguistics

MR. JOHN PAULO Q. HERRERA
Emcee